Dear Sir/Madam:

I would like to take the opportunity to comment concerning the above referenced case.

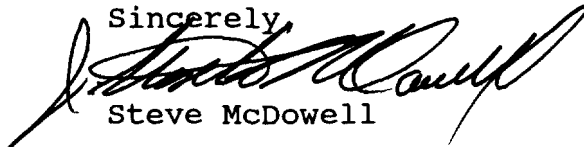

I am appalled that the Court refused to enforce the law that requires airing of political advertising regardless of the station's viewpoint or political persuasion. This is a clear breach of the candidate's right to campaign advertising and free speech.

No political candidate should be penalized by the censorship of his or her adds by a radio or television station merely because that station does not share the same political point of view.

A dangerous precedent is at stake here.

Thank you for the opportunity to comment.

Sincerely,

Steve McDowell

I am writing this letter in reference to docket # 92-254.
I felt a need to express my support of a candidates' right to choose to show pictures of aborted babies in their campaign ads.
Not to allow it would, in my opinion, be a gross form of discrimination and censorship, in light of the fact that we are subjected to things of similar content every night on the evening news, e.g. dead and dying, fly infested little children in Somalia, pictures of Jewish Holocaust victims, not to mention the contents of what is passed off as TV entertainment, etc.

I hope you will take my concerns into consideration
when making your decision.

Sincerely,

Kristina Kelly

Dear Sirs,

I am writing in reference to MM Docket No. 92-254 Dan Becker's campaign ads appeared to have been censored due to his views. I do not believe ANY political candidate should be censored merely because the station doesn't share his views.

Sincerely,

Re: Docket #92-254

To Whom It May Concern:

The PRO-LIFE ADS that are now being shown during prime time are one of the most positive, effective and beautiful things that I've seen that could effect a decision regarding pregnancy.

Please continue them during the time they are now being shown.

Sincerely,

Dear Secretary;

This letter is to inform you and your associates, of my disapproval of your actions regarding your censorship of Mr. Becker during the elections. RE: m m docket No. 92-254.

If I am correct, the law requires you to televise all political announcements or advertising. By censoring this particular announcement showed the public that you are endorsing a certain view point. With this choice you were not allowing the public to become educated and therefore they knew no difference between the candidates when they voted. You are there to help protect the viewers from watching things that would be morally destructive, but instead you have managed to gradually desensitize our nation with 24th "you" allow on the Air Waves. I think it is time we knew both sides of the issues and for you to start doing the job you are supposed to do and quit making up your own laws.

Sincerely,
Mrs Geri Prosser
